Are you willing to accept credits from Argosy University students?

Yes – the transferability of credits may be determined via a transfer credit evaluation.

If so, please outline your transfer process including any exceptions, guarantees, limits, etc.:

Courses are evaluated for transfer on a course-by-course basis. Transfer students must earn a minimum of 30 credits at Northwestern. Of their major and minor requirements, 50% must be earned at Northwestern.

Courses taken from the following will be evaluated for the transfer of credits:

- regionally, nationally, professionally, or specialized accredited institutions (recognized by the U.S. Department of Education)
- foreign institutions that are recognized by their country's ministry of education
- institutions with an established Credit Transfer Agreement with Northwestern

Describe your transfer admission requirements, review process and timeline, including incentives for Argosy students:

Transfer students may apply via our Adult Undergraduate application process. Applications will be reviewed for admittance upon receipt of all official collegiate transcripts. (An official high school transcript is required if transferring less than 60 collegiate credits).

Students should expect an admittance decision within 2-weeks of submitting an application and all supplemental documents.

Please provide information about your financial aid offerings, including any incentives to Argosy students:

Admitted Argosy students are eligible for financial aid. Financial Aid includes federal student loans, the Federal Pell Grant, and the Minnesota State Grant. The Adult Undergraduate program is competitively priced at $440 per credit. Students are also encouraged to apply for financial aid via the FAFSA.

Discounts are available for eligible participants. Various discounts include: a family discount, military discount, Christian worker discount, and corporate partner discount. More information regarding Northwestern discounts is available here.

Please describe available housing options:

Leased housing options are available for students ages 25+ along with married students and students with families. Students may submit a housing application once accepted to Northwestern.

- Space is limited, so complete the application process early to increase your chances of receiving housing.

Please indicate the best way for interested students to begin the process of transferring to your institution:
